

Obituary

Maxwell Xavier Yuhas, born in Miami, Florida, on November 11, 1999, was killed in a tragic accident involving a drunk driver, on April 24, 2019. He was to graduate from Centennial High School this coming May, and planned to pursue a career in animation and filmmaking after graduation. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael and Jenny Yuhas, and brothers Alexander Yuhas, Aaron Yuhas, and Christian Yuhas.

He had been developing his artistic skills from a very early age, cartooning and writing comic books since he was 11. He loved his own dog, a corgi named Brenna, and the family dog, Finley. He was involved in broadcasting as a writer, cameraman, editor, and on-camera personality. He was learning to play piano, and enjoyed video games and offbeat videos. His friends loved his humorous wit, and he was constantly making others laugh.

A memorial service will be held at Centennial High School on Thursday, April 25, 2019. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Operation Kindness.
